

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The writing of this book would have been impossible without the support and assistance of a great many people. First and foremost I must thank the Board of Governors of the School for entrusting this work to me, and for allowing me access to the School records. The Headmaster, Stephen Connolly, his Secretary, Margaret Hamilton, and the Bursar, John Hunter, have each been more than helpful, as have Bangor Grammarians, but it is to Barry Greenaway, (not to mention his long-suffering wife, Caroline), erstwhile teacher and Librarian, and now School Archivist, that I owe perhaps the greatest debt. He unearthed many gems in the School archives, endured (almost silently) endless emails requesting information and read drafts of all the chapters, offering his advice on matters of fact and of style.

Thanks too are due to Maurice McCord, a man who started his teaching career at the same time as I started the Senior School, and who taught me a little English, Latin and Mathematics, and (along with Irwin Bonar) a lot of history; it was his suggestion that I should try to set each chapter in its wider historical context.

I am indebted to the following Staff and former Staff for information: Lt.Col.W.J.Ricketts, Dr.R.J.Rodgers, Dr.N.D.Argent, Mike Andrews, Irwin Bonar, Eric Cardwell, Myles Christy, Desmond Cole-Baker, Jim Driscoll, John Ekin, Chris Harte, Ian Hunter, Rodney Jones, Mrs.C.Kerr, Alan Mackie, Roy Mairs, Maurice McCord, Bob McIlroy, Billy Mercer, Peter Moore, Ray Mowat, Davy Napier, John Smyth, Robert Stevenson, Gordon Thomson, Mrs.I.Weir, Jim Welch, Mrs.S.Williams and Ivan Wilson. Kenny Browne, Dougie Rea, Bertie Styles and Gordon Topping were in a position to provide insights from both sides of the teacher's desk. The entire Administrative Staff were unfailingly courteous and helpful, as were Maintenance Men, Matt McClements and Peter Sharpe.

Former pupils who contributed memories, documents and photographs were Terry Allen, Simon Armstrong, Glenn Ashe, Robert Baird, Brian Baxter, Ken Best, Howard Blair, Paul Blair, Tom Boal, Ronnie Boston, Clifford Browne, Derek Campbell, Jim Claney, Ward Crawford, Walter Dowdall, Allen M.Foye, R.Martin Gray, Ken Hawtin, David Humphries, C.T.Ingold, Peter Jarvis, Brian Johnston, Ross Jones, Brian Kelly, David A.Kerr, Dermod Knox, Brian Leith, Brian Mairs, George Matthews, John McBlain, Mike McConnell, Raymond McGimpsey, John McKibbin, Robbie Milhench, Peter Millar, Mrs.Pat Moody, née Wilkins, Denis Neill, John (Joe) Parke, Dr.E.M.Patterson, Harry Patton, Marcus Patton, Alan Pinkerton, Michael Rea Snr., Desmond Robinson, Tommy Ross, Brian Sheil, J.B.Stark, Robert Sugar, Malcolm J.Thomson, William Thompson, Ivan Warwick, Harding Watson, Don Whittle, Paul Wickens, Roddy Wilkins and Ian Wilson.

Other individuals who gave freely of their time were Mrs.Elizabeth Ball, née McFeeters, Mrs.Muriel Bramwell, my cousin Peter Gray of Melbourne, who contacted Col.Ricketts, Dr.J.I.McFeeters, Rev.R.Stirling, Minister of Conlig Presbyterian Church, Mrs.Elma Wilson and Mrs.Jane Young, née Bramwell.

The staff of a number of libraries, government departments and other institutions also deserve my thanks: the Carnegie Library, Bangor, N.E.E.L.B. Local Studies Service, Ballymena, the Newspaper Library of the Central Library, Belfast, Donaghadee Library, the Linenhall Library, S.E.E.L.B. Library Headquarters in Ballynahinch and Deirdre Armstrong, Senior Librarian, Local Studies S.E.E.L.B. Library Service, the libraries of the Queen's University Belfast, the University of Ulster at Jordanstown and Trinity College Dublin, Ian Wilson and the North Down Heritage Centre, the Public Record Office of Northern Ireland, the Public Record Office of Ireland, the National Library of Ireland, Union Theological Seminary in New York, the Presbyterian Historical Society, the Registry of Deeds in Belfast and Dublin, the Diocese of Wilmington Office of Archives in Delaware, the Departments of Education, and of Finance, the Commissioners of Charitable Donations and Bequests, Dublin, Waterford City and Waterford County Archives, and the Royal British Columbia Museum.

I also wish to record my thanks to the 8th Viscount Bangor for graciously agreeing to write the Foreword to this book.
